

The Great Polarization

Economics, Institutions and Policies in the Age of Inequality

A conference sponsored by the Department of Economics at the University of Utah

Inequality in Education: What Have We Learned and What Can We Do?

Susan Dynarski

Abstract

The good news: university attendance is on the rise worldwide. The bad news: class divides in education are also widening. Dynarski explores troubling increases in inequality in educational attainment and achievement. Potential explanations are examined, as well as promising, evidence-based policies to shrink the divide.